19th 7 SEP 1931

SIR,

With reference to your letter No.P.1431 Pol.60-31-2 dated 4th September, 1931, enquiring whether it would not be possible to select a local officer from our Police force or the Military for the post of Inspector in the Provincial Reserve Police, I have the honour to state that I have not been able to discover any one in the Police who is suited for this appointment nor, so far as I have been able to ascertain, is the army likely to supply us with an officer fitted for the post of Inspector in the Provincial Reserve Police. This force is at present in a very untrained condition knowing only a smattering of drill, having no knowledge of musketry and save in the cases of a few men, barely ignorant of physical training which is essential to develop the poor physique of the majority of the men. It is also desirable that the force should have a knowledge of signalling. In these circumstances trained officers are necessary to undertake the instruction of the force: we cannot afford to undertake the to train officers and so delay the training of the men. The immediate instruction of the men is imperative to render the force effective and to instill in them a proper sense of their duties and of discipline.

2. In proposing Mr. Baldrey for the post, I selected a man with Army training as competent to undertake the duties required of the Inspector in the Provincial Reserve Police and had also in view the possibility of his succeeding eventually to the post of Assistant Superintendent of Police. I request, therefore, that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained for the entertainment of Mr. D.E.W. Baldrey, Ex-trooper, British Army Service, as Inspector in the Provincial Reserve Police, on the scale 100-5-125 with free house and conveyance allowance as in the case of City officers, subject to any improvements in pay and allowance that may be hereafter sanctioned.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE.
